

1980 As Played Score Sheets

This file includes a score sheet for every regular season game played during the 1980 season and uses the official lineups. This means there will be several American League games where a pitcher is listed as the starting Designated Hitter (mostly in September for Baltimore, but Detroit and other teams may also have listed a pitcher as the DH). In actuality, these pitchers never batted and instead a pinch hitter was inserted and served as the DH for the remainder of the game. For Baltimore, please substitute Terry Crowley when the opposing pitcher is Right-Handed and Benny Ayala when the opposing pitcher is Left-Handed.

The score sheets in this PDF file are listed in order by date played, league and then alphabetically by home team. The data used to create these score sheets was obtained from Retrosheet.org. Please see their statement at the end of introduction.

There were some tie games, for example, Seattle vs Detroit on June 2, 1980 which caused some teams to play 163 games even though their win-loss record only totals to 162 games. The Houston Astros and Los Angeles Dodgers did play a 163rd game to determine the NL West Division Champion on October 6, 1980 with the Astros winning 7 to 1.
